The Convocation is the second international meeting of U*U women and people from liberal faiths committed to initiatives to improve women's lives worldwide. (The major speakers are pictured above and below.)

BELIEVE TOGETHER - Honor our Unitarian heritage; share our faith stories and how we live our values in the family and in the community.

THINK TOGETHER - Learn about: the four pillars of human development theory; the new UN Women entity dedicated to improving the status of women worldwide; efforts to prevent family violence; and programs to ensure educational opportunities for girls.

SING TOGETHER - Make time for yourself: meditation practices and other ways of coping with stress; honor the choices we make as women.

2012 ICUUW Convocation The organizers of the 2012 ICUUW Convocation are pleased to offer both pre- and post-event extensions for those participants who wish to broaden their knowledge of Unitarian history, deepen their personal connections with the Unitarians of Transylvania, and see other regions of Europe and Romania. All proceeds from these optional extensions will go to the ICUUW scholarship fund.

Prague & Budapest

September 23–29, 2012
7 days/6 nights—from $899/person

Three nights each in two of Europe's most captivating capital cities. If you have not visited Central Europe before this is an affordable opportunity to explore two world class cities with other UUs including NPR commentator Margot Adler. There will be group activities and meals as well as an opportunity to indulge your own interests with the ample free time allotted. The trip begins in Prague, Czech Republic and ends in Cluj (Kolozsvár), Romania where it joins the Unitarian Heritage tour. (Those individuals wishing to either extend their stay in Hungary or travel on to their partner churches upon arrival in Romania can do so and have their trip fees pro-rated). The tour includes accommodations for six nights in centrally located 3-star hotels with breakfast each morning, half-day guided tours of Prague and Budapest with local guides, an experienced tour director to facilitate your trip, ground transportation from Prague to Budapest and from Budapest to Kolozsvár/Cluj, plus four additional group meals..

Unitarian Heritage & Saxon Cities

September 29–October 4
6 days/5 nights—from $745/person

Beginning in Kolozsvár/Cluj, this trip will start with the celebration of Transylvanian Thanksgiving and then travel on to the most significant and revered Unitarian sites in Transylvania. These include Kolozsvár, Torda, Mészkö, Gyulafehérvár and Déva where local ministers and others will share with you the stories of our Unitarian heroes and martyrs such as Francis David, John Sigismund, and Ferenc Balázs on the same ground where they stood. The tour will also visit a number of places of general interest such as the 13th century castle at Vajdahunyad, the Saxon fortress church at Biertan, and the medieval citadel in Segesvár/Sighisoara (both are UNESCO World Heritage sites). You will also stay overnight in the Saxon capital of Transylvania, Sibiu, which was named European Capital of Culture for 2007.

Maramureș & Bucovina:

Wooden Churches & Painted Monasteries

October 7–13
7 days/6 nights—from $745/person

Hidden away in these remote regions along the Romania/Ukraine border are some of the most spectacular scenery and picturesque religious treasures to be found anywhere. You will experience the unique culture, architecture, and scenery of Maramureș and tour four of the most famous painted monasteries (Vorneț, Humor, Moldovița, and Suceavița—all UNESCO World Heritage sites) with a knowledgeable guide. This tour begins in Marosvásárhely/ Tîrgu Mureș at the conclusion of the Second ICUUW Convocation, where extension participants will remain overnight on October 7. The tour ends in Kolozsvár/Cluj on the morning of October 13.

Visiting your Partner Village or Town

Before and after the Convocation there will be an opportunity for those participants with partner churches in Transylvania to visit their partner towns and villages, and to reconnect with members of the congregation. Participants who do not have partners in Romania will be given the opportunity to spend time in a Unitarian village so they might better understand their co-religionists and experience their way of life. The UUPCC Pilgrimage Service can assist with all your logistics including transportation needs and interpreters as required. Transportation costs are a function of vehicle size and distance traveled. UUPCC interpreters receive $50/day. To plan your partner church visit contact John Dale at jdaleuupcc@yahoo.com

Pre- and post-convocation tour logistics will be coordinated by the UU Partner Church Council Pilgrimage Service which has more than 15 years experience facilitating the visits of UUs to Eastern and Central Europe. For more details including dates, costs, daily itineraries and registration materials please visit the UUPCC website at www.uupcc.org/trips.html.
